Pages 52-53
— Section Four: Punctuation

1) mary seacole was a nurse from jamaica. she was born in 1805 and died in england on the 14th of may 1881.

2) question mark

3) The athlete was fast, strong and very determined.

4) As soon as he could, Mr Andrews called the fire brigade.

5) We'll meet at the gardener's hut on the east side of the park. I've heard that it is always nice and quiet there, and we've got loads of time to walk.

6) "It's been raining all day here," said Gabby.

7)

Sentence	Correctly	Incorrectly
I only have a short shopping list: today a loaf of bread, a bunch of bananas and a pint of milk.		✓
He could count his good friends on one hand: Rory, Rose, Susan, Sarah and Jane.	✓
I saw a lot of birds yesterday: a thrush, a heron, two starlings, a buzzard and five ducklings.	✓
The table was filled with food: the chef didn't want any of her customers to go hungry.	✓

8) Lots of television crews went to the shore; they were all hoping to film the monster that lived in the water.

9) The mechanic (who came from the neighbouring village) started working on Jeffrey's car.

10) There's a mouse-eating rabbit in the garden.