Thursday ALL 'j' ALTERNATIVES

Today we would like you to practise a mixture of these alternative 'j' sound spellings through look, write, cover and check. Use a Look Say Cover Write and Check grid to practise the spellings. You can always create your own table in your home learning book if you want to, or just fold a piece of paper as you work your way through the list of words to hide the words you have already spelt.

Look, Say, Cover, Write and Check!

Tick the columns as you follow the instructions from left to right. Make sure you spell the words in the 'write' column. If you spell the word incorrectly, write it again in the 'correction' column.

Friday ALL 'j' ALTERNATIVES

Today we want you to practise some of words from all of the alternative 'j' spellings you have been learning this week through dictated sentences.

Ask you parent to read the sentences to you that can be found below. You need to write these sentences into your home learning book, making sure you have clear capital letters, end stops, finger spaces and your neatest handwriting! Once you have written your sentences and checked them, you could highlight the word that contains the alternative 'j' spelling. Your parents can then check to see if you have the correct spelling.

Dictated sentences

- I went to the zoo and I saw a giraffe.
- It was my birthday so my mum got me a birthday badge.
- The village was quiet because everyone was sleeping.
- There are lots of digits in maths.
- I only have 5 pages left in my English book.
- I found a cat under the hedge when I was out for a walk.
