

JUST LIKE A ROMAN

In circa 43 A.D.,
The Romans came from overseas,
And thanks to archaeology,
We know a lot about them.

CHORUS: Gonna tell you how to
Eat like a Roman,
Drink like a Roman,
Dress like a Roman,
Think like a Roman,
Pray like a Roman,
Build like a Roman,
Slay like a Roman,
ALL: Party like a Roman.

They were very fond of feasts
And always wanted more to chew up.
With wine and vegetables and beasts,
They stuffed and stuffed and then they threw up.
(Bleugh!)

Rich Romans liked to dress with flair,
In togas, cloaks and jewellery,
They would sometimes bleach their hair
With ash and vinegar and wee!
(Eeouw!)

CHORUS: Gonna tell you how to
Eat like a Roman,
Drink like a Roman,
Dress like a Roman,
Think like a Roman,
Pray like a Roman,
Build like a Roman,
Slay like a Roman,
ALL: Party like a Roman.

They worshipped many different deities
For every aspect of their life.
Mighty Jupiter was king of these
And Juno was his wife.
The Romans' building work was great,
Their sewage system takes some beating.

The roads they laid were super straight
And they invented central heating.

*CHORUS: Gonna tell you how to
Eat like a Roman,
Drink like a Roman,
Dress like a Roman,
Think like a Roman,
Pray like a Roman,
Build like a Roman,
Slay like a Roman,
ALL: Party like a Roman.*

They excelled themselves at war
And conquered many other nations,
Three hundred thousand troops or more
Took very good organisation.
The Romans liked to have a laugh,
(ha ha ha!)
Gladiator fights and chariot races,
A visit to the public baths
Would put a smile upon their faces.

*CHORUS: Gonna tell you how to
Eat like a Roman,
Drink like a Roman,
Dress like a Roman,
Think like a Roman,
Pray like a Roman,
Build like a Roman,
Slay like a Roman,
ALL: Party like a Roman, party like a Roman,
party like a Roman
Just like a Roman.*
