

Sausages and Beans- 'Pokemon' version

As before, underline the digraphs and trigraphs with a 'sausage' and dot the single phonemes with a 'bean'. Put boxes around the Walter's Words. Read back the sentences when you've finished.

1. The trainers were in a ring. They were all set.
2. One of them took out the ball from the bag.
3. All of a sudden there was a big bang.
4. A little dragon was out of the ball.
5. It was red, yellow, green and black. He went into the air.
6. It turned in the air and attacked the next animal.
7. Lots of sparks and gas shot back and forth.
8. The winner was the dragon. He shot back in the ball.
9. The ball went back into the bag for the next battle.

Please feel free to make up your own sentences. Make them easier or more challenging for your child.
